A good home must be made, not bought.

Joyce Maynard

The Story

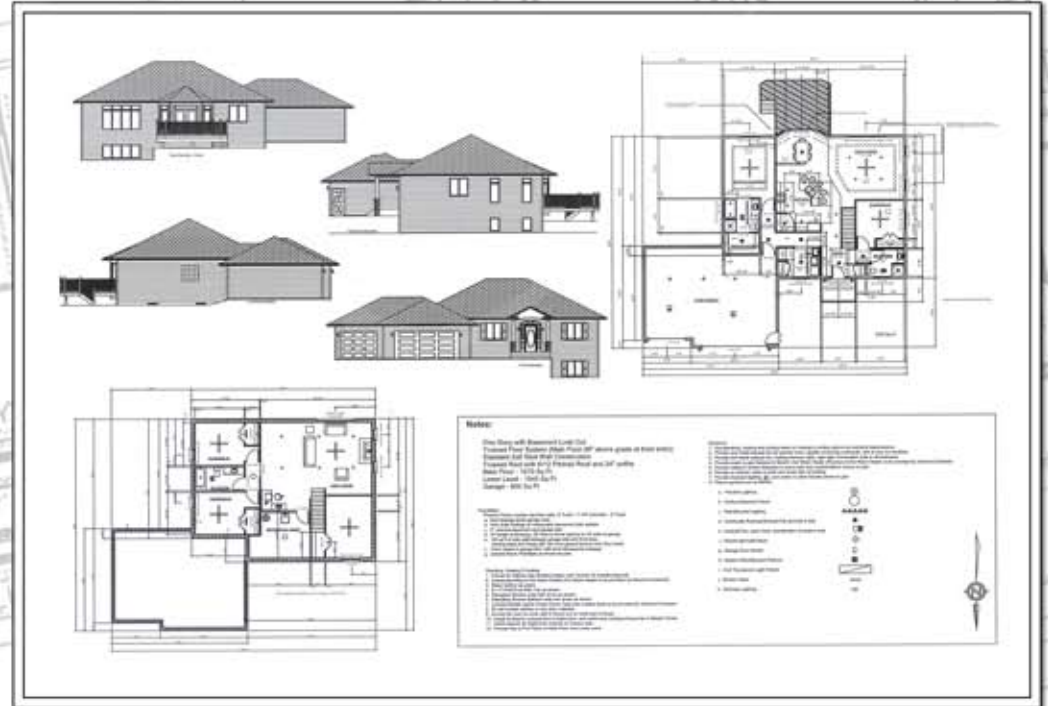

How our dream, became our home

The plan...

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord,
"plans to prosper you and not to harm you,
plans to give you hope and a future."

Jeremiah 29:11

A Warm Welcome

Live, Laugh, Love

The Kitchen

The heart of the home.

The Beautiful is everywhere; perhaps more in the arrangement of your saucepans on the white walls of your kitchen than in your eighteenth-century living room or in the official museums.

Fernand Leger

The Dining Room

A place for food and fellowship.

His house was perfect, whether you liked food, or sleep, or work, or story-telling, or singing, or just sitting and thinking, best, or a pleasant mixture of them all.

J. R. R. Tolkien

The Living Room

A place for time with family and friends.

A house is not a home unless it contains food and fire for the mind as well as the body.

Unknown

The Powder Room

A place for hospitality.

'Tis good to give a stranger a meal, or a night's lodging.
'Tis better to be hospitable to his good meaning and thought, and give courage to a companion.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

The Master Suite

A place for rest.

I lay down and slept. I woke up in safety,
for the Lord was watching over me.

Psalm 3:6

The Master Suite

A place for rest.

Clare's Room

A place of her own.

Little girls are the nicest things that happen to people. They are born with a little bit of angelshine about them, and though it wears thin sometimes there is always enough left to lasso your heart . . .

Alan Beck

Brady's Room

A place to call his own.

When I grow up I want to be a little boy.

Joseph Heller

The Bathroom

A place for little luxuries.

A child on a farm sees a plane fly by overhead and dreams of a faraway place.

A traveler on the plane sees the farmhouse and dreams of home.

Unknown

The Family Room

A place for recreation and building relationships.

There's no place like home. My home. It's my style, my way. It's my haven--and it's made just for me, and my family.
